Telesmart Communications Inc. Introduces a Freshly Designed Website

The Telesmart service is a rechargeable prepaid calling card with no connection fees, no monthly fees, or any hidden fees. No expiry date and no small print.

(PRWEB) August 29, 2005 -- Telesmart Communications Inc. (www.telesmt.com) introduces a freshly designed website with easy navigation and informative hyperlinks.

Telesmart Communications is a pre-paid long distance company that was established in 1993. The company has a strong customer base within Canada and the U.S.A and is growing internationally.

Telesmart Communications originated in the calling card industry as one of the first companies in this new market. Even today our ROSE calling cards continue to be sold in stores. They are now being used primarily as a promotional tool, with many ROSE card customers making the switch to our prepaid long distance service.

Telesmart Communications has continued to evolve with the times and trends of this industry and has moved its focus to DTS (Direct Telephone Service).

Telesmart Communications allows customers to enjoy great rates to many countries worldwide, and greatly reduce their long distance costs at home and business. You can even connect your cellular phone and fax machine to our Direct Access Network. Telesmart Communications is looking forward to serving all customers' long distance telephone requirements, and we are confident that we can generate significant savings on your telecommunications expenses.

Advantage 1. By using Telesmart Communications all accounts can be self-managed over the internet. Our customers can make payments, modify account information, look up past call records, refer friends, and view payment history all from the comfort of their own home. All of Telesmart Communications services are fully integrated with the World Wide Web for account management.

Advantage 2. Telesmart Communications service gives customers the ability to access it from over 40 countries worldwide. (See Access numbers) <http://www.telesmt.com/long-distance/numbers.aspx>.

This enables Telesmart Communications customers to use our service and enjoy our low rates which are unmatched by other carriers.

Please visit <http://www.telesmt.com/> for additional information. Be smart use Telesmart. Why not use the most truly reliable and affordable long distance service?
